

WELCOME
TO BIBLICAL FAMILIES

Thanks for taking the time to visit us here at Biblical Families. Your journey here is likely as unique as every other person that has visited, but with one of two common themes. You have either come into the knowledge of plural marriage (some call it by other names), or you are interested in learning more. No matter what brings you our way, WELCOME!

There is quite a bit of information available to you as you seek to learn more about Biblical Families. We would encourage you to first of all check out our Resources link on our home page. You will find a great deal of materials there that are available for you to read online, or even download for later use.

If you enjoy interaction with others, then we encourage you to participate in our Discussion Boards. Here you will meet others just like you, seeking to learn more from others. With an ever growing number of topics, you will find that no matter what your question, someone has probably already asked it! Be sure to check it out.

Biblical Families has also established a presence elsewhere on the web. We are on FaceBook, MySpace and Twitter. If you use any of these services, connect with Biblical Families for additional information, resources and community.

With all of our growth, we have had the opportunity to provide real-life interaction through Retreats. These are held at various locations and times throughout the year. Always check back with the home page of Biblical Families for the latest retreat information and updates!

In some areas, Biblical Families has established local home fellowship groups. These groups provide an opportunity for worship, teaching, fellowship and more. For some, this is the only opportunity they have to connect with other believers. As Biblical Families continues to expand, we hope to establish more groups in strategic locations.

If you have any questions that you are not finding answers, then you can always contact the Staff at Biblical Families. Email us at staff@biblicalfamilies.org

Once again, welcome to the family!
